

Sgowtiaid Sir Gâr - Carmarthenshire Scouts

Area Badge

The Dragon

This represents Wales and the myths and legends of Carmarthenshire, as well as the spirit of Carmarthenshire Scouts

Sgowtiaid Sir Gâr

Written in green letters to symbolise the mainly rural nature of the County and its links to agriculture

Carmarthenshire Scouts

Written in black letters to symbolise the County's industrial heritage and the contribution of industry to its economy

The World Scout Badge

Showing the Scout County is part of an international movement

The White Background

This brings together the colours of Wales as depicted on the National flag – red, green and white

The Purple Boundary

This is the same colour as the World Badge to symbolise that there are no boundaries in Scouting and that all Scouts look beyond the horizon
